

Mackinac Bridge May Be Finished 5 Months Faster Than Schedule

LANSING (AP)—Preliminary work is already under way on the building of the Mackinac Straits bridge, and it may be finished five months ahead of schedule.

These were the statements of Prentiss M. Brown of Detroit, chairman of the Mackinac Bridge Authority, at a news conference.

Brown said that representatives of Merritt-Chapman & Scott, contractors for the bridge's sub-structure are now at the Straits getting the way cleared for the beginning of actual work this spring.

He said the eventual work crew will be between 500 and 1,000 some of them to be hired locally.

The contractors are now hopeful of opening the bridge about June 1, 1957, instead of the originally scheduled Nov. 1, Brown said.

More hopeful promises of delivery and erection of steel work by the American Bridge division of the U. S. Steel Co., he said, led to the optimism.

Brown said former Gov. Murray D. Van Wagener was "foolish" to register as a lobbyist in another matter for Stifel-Nicolaus & Co., one of the underwriters of the $99,800,000 bridge bond issue.

But he added that "Van Wagener had nothing to do with Stifel-Nicolaus and the others getting the bonds. No one did. The bonds were sold on open, competitive bidding."

Money Invested

Brown said the Authority was not afraid of a proposed legislative investigation. He said the Authority is planning to make a full report on all its activities to the legislatures as required by law.

The Authority chairman reported that most of the $99,800,033 check he received from the bond buyers in New York Wednesday has been invested in short-term government bonds. About $1,800,000 was deposited in the First National Bank of Detroit, he said, for current expenses.

The more than $90,000,000 invested will earn revenue at the rate of about $1,000,000 a year in interest, Brown said, until it has to be liquidated to pay the contractors.

Brown revealed that the Authority is planning to ask the engineering deans of the University of Michigan and Michigan State College and a private engineer to serve without pay as consultants during construction of the bridge.

Brown said he opposed a proposal of Sen. Haskell L. Nichols (R-Jackson) to amend the state constitution to forbid the issuance of general obligation bonds to "bail out" the bridge if the financing fails.

"It is entirely possible," Brown said, "that after the bridge is built and is making money, the people will want to refund the present revenue bonds and issue general obligation bonds at much lower interest to replace them."

Ousted Manion Tells Colleagues To Stand Fast

WASHINGTON (AP)—Clarence Manion, dismissed as chairman of President Eisenhower's Commission on Intergovernmental Relations, has urged his former colleagues to "stand fast and carry on."

Manion sent a special plea by telegram to one member, Rep. Noah Mason (R-Ill.), who quit Thursday in protest against Manion's firing.

He said he was grateful for "your fine compliment to me" but asked Mason to reconsider because "more than ever before, this important commission now needs your wise, patriotic counsel in the interest of revitalized constitutional government for the United States."

In a statement, Manion also urged the members generally to "stand fast and carry on." He said their work was "nobly advanced" and they should give it "every possible momentum in the interest of the preservation of constitutional government."

Manion had said he resigned at the request of Sherman Adams, White House chief of staff. The former commission chairman attributed his ouster to speeches he made supporting the Bricker amendment on treaty powers, which the administration opposes. There were published reports the White House was dissatisfied with his work as chairman. But the President's spokesmen with held comment.

Kidnapers Hired To Scare Wife

CHICAGO (AP)—Frank T. Anderson Jr., 26, of suburban Northbrook, paid a $200 fine in Criminal Court Thursday for hiring an ex-convict to kidnap his wife and scare her into spending more time at home.

He was charged with conspiring to commit an illegal act. Anderson and his wife, Rosemary, 26, left the courtroom arm-in-arm.

John Nowicki, 26, Anderson's accomplice, was fined $100 by Judge Matthew D. Hartigan who heard the trial without a jury.

John Gabel, police chief of suburban Morton Grove, near Northbrook, said Anderson told him he hired Nowicki to kidnap his wife to scare her into giving up some of her social engagements and spend more time at home.

Nowicki hid in the Anderson car Oct. 28 and surprised Mrs. Anderson after she attended a club meeting. He ordered her to drive off, and on the way she stopped the car and escaped on foot.

Figures Show GM Work Week Over 40 Hours

DETROIT (AP)—General Motors says its scores of thousands of hourly employees are working more than 40 hours per week on the average.

The company also says it has 30,000 more persons on the payroll in the United States than it had at this time last year and that many of its plants are working overtime.

Reduced work weeks in some assembly are expected to be temporary, the company said.

Union Complains

The corporation made the statement Thursday in a comment on its labor lineup after the CIO United Auto Workers had complained over what they called GM's "short work week—or share the work schedules."

The union, in a letter to GM President Harlow H. Curtice, asked the company to readjust schedules in order to provide "40-hour work weeks for regular employees."

It complained over what it called "widespread short work weeks" for regular workers.

GM issued a statement through Harry W. Anderson, GM vice president in charge of personnel. Anderson, besides mentioning a 40-hour average work week, increased GM employment, and more than 170,000 hourly paid workers in Michigan are averaging more than a 40-hour week.

Increased By 30,000

He said some assembly operations are "currently scheduled to work between 32 and 40 hours per week, which we expected to be temporary."

Anderson's full statement said: "1. General Motors' hourly employees in the United States are working more than 40 hours per week on the average."

"2. Our more than 170,000 hourly rated employees in Michigan are also working on the average in excess of a 40-hour week. There are 20,000 more GM employees currently working in Michigan than we were working a year ago. We have some 30,000 more employees working in the U. S. at this time than we had during the same period last year."

"3. Many of our automobile plants are working overtime, including some assembly operations. Some assembly operations are currently scheduled to work between 32 and 40 hours per week, which we expect to be temporary."

House Votes Today On Bills To Extend State Sales Levies

LANSING (AP)—The House today scheduled votes on bills extending the sales tax to fabrications and making minor amendments in the business receipts tax law.

The sales tax amendment would require the payment of sales tax on both labor and material costs where the character of the basic material is changed.

The bill would take effect July 1 and would forbid the revenue department to collect it previous to that date.

The business receipts tax amendments changes the annual return date of the tax from Jan. 1 to March 1, but rural electric administration power cooperatives on the same basis as other utilities.

Banister said Bohac was instructed to, a later letter to leave home at midnight Thursday, follow a certain route and stop at the intersection of 103rd and 88th Ave. in suburban Palos Park.

Bohac followed the instructions and Alleman, armed with an automatic, was seized near the intersection by FBI agents just prior to Bohac's arrival. No shots were fired.

Greer was arrested a few streets away, Banister said, and told agents he was instructed to wait there to help Alleman leave the scene.

Banister said Alleman admitted making all arrangements for the attempted extortion and that Greer claimed he "did not know what Alleman was doing."

Democrats Lose Beeson Fight; Campaign Issue

By ROWLAND EVANS JR.

WASHINGTON (AP)—Democratic leaders in the Senate were quietly jubilant today, despite a 45-42 defeat in their campaign against confirmation of Albert C. Beeson to the National Labor Relations Board.

Sen. Hill (D-Ala.), who took a leading part in the floor fight against Beeson Thursday, said the outcome would "give the Democrats a clear-cut issue which we will undoubtedly raise from time to time" before next November's election.

Accused of Lying

Beeson was confirmed after bitter debate. Accused by some Democrats of making "false and misleading" statements during his confirmation hearing, he was given a vote of confidence by all but one of the Republicans present.

Republicans said his integrity stood unquestioned and that nothing brought out in lengthy hearings before the Senate Labor Committee had impaired "his reputation for truth and veracity."

Some said that he became confused during his testimony but had no intention not to tell the truth.

But Sen. Neely (D-WVa.), asked the Senate to help him protect President Eisenhower "against the disgrace of putting a man on there who lied five times."

Bias Denied

Three Democrats joined 42 Republicans in confirming Beeson. On the losing side were 40 Democrats, Sen. Langer (R-ND) and Sen. Morse (Ind-Ore).

The three Democrats voting for Beeson were Senators Byrd of Virginia, Holland of Florida and Eastland of Mississippi.

Before the question of Beeson's veracity was raised, some Democrats had opposed his appointment on the ground his active career as a management executive in labor relations would cause him to be prejudiced. Beeson said he was certain he would have no bias.

Beeson's relationship with his former employer, the Food Machinery and Chemical Corp., became the crucial issue in the dispute over his testimony to the Labor Committee. He submitted a formal resignation to the company the last day of the hearings, to take effect the date he takes the oath of office as a member of the NLRB.

Prior to that, he told the committee he had submitted an oral resignation to the firm's Board of Directors. However, Company President Paul L. Davies said Beeson had been given a one-year leave of absence but had no agreement of any kind to return.

His son, Pvt. Richard Tartar, 21, was reported by the Army to have been killed in action in Korea 11 months ago. A sealed coffin and his personal papers arrived here last summer.

With only a father's hope, Tartar waited up past midnight before sadly shaking his head and telling a group of reporters and photographers who kept the vigil with him:

"I won't be satisfied until the one who did it goes to jail."

Two officials—Harold J. Gibbons, secretary-treasurer of Teamsters Local 668, and Louis Berra, his assistant—have gone to jail rather than turn over the records.

U.S. Dist. Judge George H. Moore ordered both men held in city jail for contempt of court until the records are presented to the jury. Berra went to jail Thursday and Gibbons, jailed Wednesday, was returned to his cell after refusing a second time to produce the records.

Council Says 'No':

City Not Interested In Community TV Antenna

Escanaba City Council last night was polite but firm in rejecting an offer to purchase, erect and operate a community TV antenna as a city utility.

But the Council suggested to Robert Morris, representative of a company that installed a community TV antenna at Norway, that if private ownership was interested in financing the venture, approval could be requested of the city.

City Manager A. V. Aronson reported to the Council that the estimated cost to the city of such an installation would be $131,810.

Enough Utility Problems
Morris told the Council that he believed the city would make money by operating a city-owned community TV antenna as a city utility, but the Council was doubtful.

The Council indicated that it has enough problems in connection with the operation of its present utilities, without taking on a project which would make it subject to complaints concerning TV reception in a fringe area.

Councilman Guy Knutson expressed the sentiment of the Council when he noted that "personal petitions and complaints" might increase considerably if the city tried to operate a TV antenna system. Snow, fading, transmission troubles, and other reception failures would bring a flood of complaints.

Advantages Cited
Mayor Robert E. LeMire noted that telecasting stations are moving closer to Escanaba, that the city is located on fairly flat land rather than "in a hole" as at Norway, and reception has been comparatively good and is expected to improve as proposed stations are built at Marquette and Marinette.

Morris explained the community TV antenna at Norway as eliminating the need of individual antennas and assuring better TV signals. It is the only installation of its kind in this region.

Advantages in community TV antenna cited by Morris included: 1—A better appearing community; 2—A source of revenue to the city if it were operated as a city utility; 3—And a saving to TV set owners by eliminating the cost of erecting antennas.

Look To Future
The cost to individual customers who would receive TV signals through the community TV antenna would be $60 to hook up and $1.75 per month for service, it was reported to the Council.

Another reason the Council took a dim view of embarking on the community TV antenna project was the possibility that it would have a white elephant on its hands in a few years. Should TV stations be established closer to Escanaba (and two are announced) the city would have money invested in a utility that would be "useless."

The proposal by Morris was tabled "indefinitely" by the Council, but Morris was told that if private money could be interested in the project the city would consider a request for approval to string the necessary lines to individual homes.

Three Accidents Reported By Police

Three accidents were reported this morning by Michigan State Police of the Gladstone post.

At 8:40 p. m. yesterday, an accident occurred on County Road 426, two miles east of Cornell, when two cars driven by Robert Dahl of Cornell and Leonard Scheurer of Cornell, Rte. 1, collided. Both cars were headed in the same direction, and Dahl started to make a left turn as Scheurer started to pass. Scheurer braked the car and skidded into Dahl's car. State police ticketed Scheurer for excessive speed.

Kenneth A. Beaudoin, 24, of 306 S. 9th St., Escanaba, rolled over south of the Gladstone city limits at 1:30 a. m. today. He told state police that he was forced to swerve to the right to avoid an oncoming car traveling over the middle line. When swerving, he struck icy pavement, and the car landed upside down on the rocks of the bay side. Beaudoin received a cut on his head and right hand, a bruised shoulder and body bruises.

State police investigated an accident at 7:50 a. m. today, two miles south of the Gladstone city limits on US-241. John LaBrie, whose address was given as Ludington St., Escanaba, was about to pass another car when he swerved back into his own lane and hit a frosty section of the road. The car skidded and hit a tree. No tickets were issued.

Report Given On Gas Utility

City Manager A. V. Aronson last night assured the Escanaba City Council that in his opinion the city's new gas utility will end the year without incurring a deficit, and that in the future the utility will make money for Escanaba.

The Council had requested a report by the manager following a statement at a previous meeting showing the gas utility was running in the red.

After the number of gas utility customers declined from a peak of 2,734 in 1947, the number has increased slightly and now totals 2,250, the manager reported. The loss of gas in the mains, which had run as high as 50 per cent when the change-over to the new gas was made, has now been cut to 23 per cent and is expected to be reduced to 15 per cent next year, Aronson said.

For Water Heating
The city's expense in operation of the gas utility has been reduced because of the change to propane, and the need now is for additional customers, the manager noted. Gas is still the best buy for water heating and is less expensive than electricity, he said.

Most of the former gas customers have converted to electricity since 1948, but there is the possibility that electric rates will have to be increased in the future in the solution of the city's electric problem.

In other business at last night's Council meeting the Skerbeck carnival was granted permission to show in Escanaba May 19-23; an SDM (beer and wine to take out) license for Cliff's Market, S. 15th St., was approved with Councilman Guy Knutson casting the only negative vote because the licensee is a non-conforming use in a residential zone.

Bandshell Fund Grows
Council received petitions from residents of the Seventh Ave. S. area, where a new public grade school is to be built, asking street paving and water main extensions. The petitions were referred to the engineering department for estimates on costs.

Council received a communication from the Karas Memorial Committee reporting that $1,290 had been turned over to the city, bringing the total in contributions toward financing a Karas Memorial.

Police Declare War Against Use Of Switch Knives

IRON MOUNTAIN—Taking action following a development at the juvenile delinquency discussion meeting at Kingford high school Thursday night, Police Chief Frank Pipp has issued a strong warning to youths about having "switch" pocket knives in their possession.

"The state law," Chief Pipp said, "makes it unlawful to have a switch knife in possession. That law will be enforced and any person found with a switch knife in their possession will be punished to the full extent of the law."

"The law calls for a jail sentence or a $300 fine, or both. It's going to be rough on anybody we catch because they're going to get both," the chief emphasized.

Chief Pipp in warning youths that possession of such a knife is a violation of the law, referred to the amendment of Act 328 of the state law, effective Sept. 18, 1952, which reads as follows:

"Any person who shall sell or offer to sell, or any person who shall have in his possession any knife having the appearance of a pocket knife, the blade or blades of which can be opened by the flick of a button, pressure on the handle or any other mechanical contrivance, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, punishable by imprisonment in the county jail not to exceed one year or by a fine not to exceed $300, or both."

Power Contract Action Sought

The Alger-Delta Electric Co-operative Association last night informed the Escanaba City Council that it is desirous of conferring with Escanaba on Alger-Delta's proposal to contract with the city to supply Escanaba with electric power for 10 years.

Wynand Nieuwenkamp, Gladstone, Alger-Delta manager, wrote the Council that construction of a proposed 15,000 kw. generating plant was hoped to be started this year, with electric service to begin early in 1956.

The Rural Electrification Administration has approved a loan of $8,257,000 to Alger-Delta for construction of a power plant and extension of transmission lines.

No Report

Alger-Delta is ready to go forward now in negotiating the contract offered the city a few months ago, and is desirous of arriving at a decision soon, Nieuwenkamp advised.

Escanaba City Manager A. V. Aronson reported that it was his understanding that the Council's power advisory board, comprising nine Escanaba citizens, was to have a letter before the Council at last night's meeting, and that none had been received.

There was some question on the part of some power advisory board members whether the City Council wanted the board to consult with Alger-Delta officials in connection with the proposed contract, the city manager said he was advised.

To Meet March 1

Hugh Grow, secretary of the power advisory board, who was present at the Council meeting, reported that the power advisory board minutes show the board will recommend that the Council hire an engineer to study an offer of the Mead Corporation officials to supply free engineering consultation in connection with transmission line costs to connect the city with the proposed Alger-Delta plant.

Monday, March 1, at 7 p. m. was set as the date for the City Council to meet with the power advisory board in the Chamber of Commerce office in a discussion of the power subject.

In other business, the Council: Accepted the high bid of $665 by Louis Brock of Gladstone Rte. 1, for dismantling the city-owned Hiawatha Plywood building on city-owned land north of the ore docks.

Fire Truck Bids

Referred to the city manager for study and reports at next meeting six bids received for the purchase of a new fire truck. Bids ranged from a high of $21,947 to a low of $10,875.

Adopted a precised plat locating future streets and alleys in an area west of the Goulais Addition. Received and approved a recommendation of a special committee on fire insurance on city buildings.

Held over to next meeting the appointment of three persons to the Escanaba Recreation Board, pending nominations by organizations represented on the Board.

CCI's Ore Exploration Will Answer 'Magnetic Anomaly' Near Perkins

Recalling the uranium "bubble" of over-optimism that struck the L'Anse community a couple years ago, Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company spokesman today warned against too high hopes being aroused over the possibility of iron ore development in the Perkins area of Delta County.

The uranium bubble burst at L'Anse, to the keen disappointment of the community.

"The chances are overwhelmingly in favor of the viewpoint there will be no iron ore found at Perkins," said the CCI spokesman, who asked not to be identified.

The area on which the CCI is obtaining leases comprises more than 1,000 acres and is located a few miles north of Perkins in Baldwin Township.

State Lease Form

"When you want to explore the possibility of finding iron ore on property that belongs to others, you must get permission to do so," a spokesman of the Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company said.

The lease offered the owners of property in the area north of Perkins is the same in form as that required by the state for exploration on state land, he explained.

"That thing" down there at Perkins—and "thing" is about the only way to describe it at this time—is an anomaly. In geophysical terminology that means there is something there but we don't know what it is.

To Find Answer

"It might be iron ore—and it might be down 1,000 or 2,000 feet; or chances are that it is an old pre-Cambrian knob. We don't know.

"We do know that it is an anomaly revealed by its magnetic properties. This magnetic reaction can occur without a trace of iron ore being present. It may be only a mass of barren rock; or it may be magnetite—called loadstone in an earlier day. We won't know until we explore."

The Cleveland Cliffs Iron Company hopes to move drilling equipment into the area by early summer.

Cost Runs High

One hole or several holes may be drilled, depending on what is revealed. "Perhaps one hole will show us how wrong we are and make us wish we had stayed at home. Or it may be a 'teaser,' revealing enough to make us go and drill more holes."

The magnetic concentrate in the area, whether it be valuable iron ore or worthless loadstone, is beneath an overlying covering of limestone and sandstone.

The drilling through this covering to a depth necessary to determine what is beneath, the cost for one hole could run from a minimum of $30,000 to $70,000 or more. A total of $150,000 has been allocated for exploration in the area.

Escanaba Car Damaged In Crash Near Menominee

MENOMINEE — Only minor damage resulted to one car, while the other was ditched in a collision Tuesday at 4:10 p. m. on US-41, north of the city, reports the Menominee sheriff's department.

Deputy Martin Nerat reported a car driven by Erick Madison, R1, Menominee, was struck from the rear as Madison was turning into his driveway by a car driven by Mrs. E. G. Bennett, Escanaba. Only minor damage was done to the Madison car, but the Bennett car, swerved into the ditch and suffered extensive damage. A wrecker was needed to pull it out. Neither driver was injured.

Building Slumps

DETROIT (AP)—Southern Michigan construction contract awards in January dropped 15 per cent from the previous month, Dodge reports said.

The statistical service said January construction contracts awarded in Southern Michigan totaled $51,056,000 and were 27 per cent below the number awarded in January, 1953.

Dairymen Plan Annual Meeting

Three outstanding leaders in dairy manufacturing will appear on the program at the annual convention of the Upper Peninsula Dairy Manufacturers' Association at Marquette on February 26 and 27, according to O'Neil D'Amour, the association president.

George W. Ruppel, general manager of Badger Consolidated Cooperatives, Shawano, Wis., will discuss, "Buying Milk on the Froker Plan." Mr. Ruppel has been particularly successful as a merchandiser of milk and milk products.

Professor G. G. Quackenbush, agricultural economics department, Michigan State College, will speak on, "Pricing of Milk to the Producer." Much interest in Prof. Quackenbush's address has been expressed by Upper Peninsula processors familiar with a study of conditions in the Marquette milk shed authored by the economist in 1953.

Professor Robert Brunner, specialist in dairy processing, Michigan State College dairy department, East Lansing, will talk on, "The significance of the Fat Globule in Dairy Products." This information is important to dairy plant operators as the de-emphasizing of butterfat continues as the basis for pricing dairy products.

Another feature of the meeting, Mr. D'Amour announced today, will be a panel discussion, with Leonard N. Francke, Michigan Allied Dairy Association secretary-manager, acting as moderator.

Charles J. Little, Upper Peninsula extension dairyman, will report on the dairy stuffer program, a producer information service sponsored by the dairy plant operators in cooperation with the Michigan State College Extension Service.

I AM SO THANKFUL THAT I TRIED O-JIB-WA BITTERS

Although I had read many wonderful testimonials by O-Jib-Wa users, I was still doubtful if it would help me. I was pleasantly surprised says Mrs. Annie Hamilton, 5354 Vienna Road, Clio, Michigan.

"I would like to tell all who are suffering from rheumatism, arthritis, or any other kind of pain that O-Jib-Wa Bitters has done for me. My rheumatism caused me such great pain that I could hardly breathe. There were times I could not raise my hands to wash my face and to talk or turn my head. Mrs. Hamilton brought dreadful suffering. If I sat down, I had to pull myself up by the chair or table and even lifting a kettle brought such awful pains in my hands that I would almost drop it. I could barely get in or out of bed and then I couldn't turn over. I had to take sleeping pills to get any sleep at all, and besides all this I was very nervous and had little appetite. Frankly, I thought I was doomed.

Clear And Mild Over Weekend

More of the same nice weather we are now having is in prospect for the weekend, S. E. Decker of the Escanaba weather bureau surmises.

Disturbances that might cause concern are a long way off, he says and are unlikely to have any influence on the sunshine and high temperatures that have been general here.

Escanaba's low of 30 early this morning was low for the immediate area, although Sault Ste. Marie was colder by 7 degrees. Decker states that where his readings, atop the postoffice building were taken, the air must have been considerably warmer than the ground below because car windows were heavily frosted and remaining snow was crusty.

Escanaba had a high of 40 yesterday afternoon, Sault Ste. Marie had 45, Green Bay 50 and Marquette 52.

The country-wide weather picture shows a large storm centering in northern Oklahoma causing strong winds, in some cases 60 mph, blowing up dust storms in Kansas and eastern Colorado.

Yesterday's highs mostly ranged from the 50s and 60s in the northern areas to the 60s and 70s over the south with a few readings in the 80s along the southwest border of Texas. Presidio, Tex., reported the nation's high of 89. For the second consecutive day, International Falls, Minn. broke its own high temperature record for February with a temperature of 49.

There Is No Easy Way To Find Commercial Deposits Of Iron Ore

A Cleveland Cliffs official who is familiar with the hazards of mining explorations has warned against over-optimism regarding the possible development of iron ore mining in the Perkins area. The company announced yesterday that 1,000 acres in that area have been leased and that mining explorations will be conducted.

No one knows whether there is iron ore of commercial quantity and quality in the Perkins area. All that is known is that a "flying magnetic survey" in that area indicated magnetic deviations which may have been caused by iron ore. It could be ore of low iron content of which there are known deposits of tremendous quantities in Michigan and Minnesota. And there is no information available now concerning the quantity of ore, if any, in that area.

The only way that answers to these questions can be determined is by actual drilling and that is exactly what is being planned. The mining company has set aside $150,000 for these explorations but that does not necessarily mean that a sum that large will actually be spent. A single test drilling, estimated to cost $30,000, may be sufficient in itself to provide an answer. Presumably more test holes would be drilled if the results of the first one were encouraging.

Mining companies, like oil companies, have to gamble large sums of money to find new sources of raw material. The earth shrouds its resources in secrecy and the secrets can be disclosed only by costly experimentation. Usually many thousands of dollars are wasted in experiments that fail before a real find is made.

More Television Stations In Area

At least two more television stations will be on the air to serve viewers in the Escanaba area within the coming year, if present plans materialize. Marinette, with a transmitter located at Pensaukee, is scheduled to begin telecasts by Aug. 1 and Marquette expects to have a television station operating by the end of the year. Escanaba is now being served more or less regularly by Green Bay and much less regularly by Milwaukee.

The advent of television was heralded by many as a dangerous threat to newspapers. The same dire prophecies were heard many years before the advent of radio.

Radio proved to be a great help to newspapers because radio, rather than snatching advertising dollars that went to newspapers, actually whetted the public's appetite for news. Radio is primarily entertainment and cannot possibly compete with newspapers as a medium of public communication.

The same has been found to be true of television. The video statins entertain, adding the sense of vision to that of sound. Television is less effective as a news medium.

Its primary objective is that of entertainment. It dabbles in news, as does radio, but neither can provide the convenience and the scope of news coverage that newspapers provide.

It is significant that television is providing the same impetus to newspapers that radio did 25 years ago. Newspapers circulating in areas saturated with television signals are enjoying the best years of their history, both in circulation and in advertising volume.

For the purpose of which they are most suited, that of entertainment, radio and television are doing a tremendous job. They are not designed to substitute and cannot substitute for newspapers as a means of keeping the public widely informed on the events of the day.

DOES ANYBODY SAY 'NOPE' ANY MORE?

(Duluth News-Tribune)

A London Express cartoon suggests that the Berlin conference could have been avoided by having the foreign ministers stay home and say "No", to one another via television.

Molotov is pictured saying "Nyet," though the English cartoonist prefers the more confusing transliteration, "Niet." Eden says, "Er—no," Bidault "Mais—non," and Dulles "Nope."

"Nope" comes out of the American past like an old-fashioned valentine. It is the only one of the four negatives which is not a respectable word with dictionary recognition.

Maybe it's the negative we need for today's negotiations. It was a cold war of saying, "No, you aren't going to get what you want." "Nope" implied that the speaker had an upper respiratory infection and was in no mood to make concessions. It was a sad day for America when "Nope" went out of fashion.

Merry-Go-Round

WASHINGTON—The U. S. Information Service, believe it or not, has banned the collected writings of Thomas Jefferson from overseas libraries.

Officials are a little red-faced over the ban and wish they hadn't gone quite so far in appeasing Senator McCarthy. Nevertheless, the book has already been taken off the shelves of some overseas libraries. Some, on the other hand, have not removed it.

Reason for the removal was that Jefferson's writings were compiled by Sheldon Foner, who was on a State Department list of those who had taken shelter under the fifth amendment when quizzed by a congressional committee. It has been State Department policy ever since McCarthy raised such a storm last winter to remove books by congressional witnesses who invoke the fifth amendment, and since Foner was one of these, his compilation of Jefferson's writing got the ax in some libraries.

Other overseas libraries with more courage regarding McCarthyism, decided that what Jefferson wrote was more important than who compiled his writings and kept the book regardless of the dictate from Washington.

CABINET LADY GUEST

After the White House radio correspondents dinner the other evening, commentator Fulton Lewis threw a gala party at the Shoreham Hotel attended by various celebrities, most of them men.

Invited, however, was the one day of the cabinet—Mrs. Oveta Culp Hobby, Secretary of Health, Education, and Welfare. Mrs. Hobby is a lady with a fine background of public service, having been head of the WAC during the war, also publisher of the Houston Post. Despite the years, however, Mrs. Hobby is a lady of great charm, and on this particular evening she looked positively ravishing.

Appearing at the threshold of the Fulton Lewis party, she gazed at the crush of male guests and hesitated.

"I'm afraid I've come to the wrong place," she murmured.

"Not at all, not at all," assured Mr. Lewis in his most expansive mood. "These men need someone like you to tone up the party. Come right in."

The lone lady member of the cabinet still hesitated.

But after further assurance from commentator Lewis, she finally entered, took off her wrap and prepared to meet with guests.

"Now, let me see, dear," said host Lewis, "what did you say your name was?"

As Mrs. Hobby told him, Fulton literally fell on his knees. To slip up on a male member of the cabinet is not usually done in Washington, but to slip on the only lady member, said Mr. Lewis with conviction is unforgivable.

COMPETITIVE BOND BUSINESS

It's been obscured by news of butter, Bricker and Berlin, but the Securities and Exchange Commission, charged with policing Wall Street, appears on the verge of junking a regulation that has saved American consumers and investors millions.

It is rule U-50 which requires investment bankers to compete against each other in bidding for the bonds of public utilities.

Prior to 1941, big investment houses divided up the utility bond business among themselves. Many boards of directors of investment houses had tie-ins with utility boards of directors, so a bond issue was floated by advance secret agreement rather than by competitive bidding. This meant that the price to the utilities was high. In fact, during the five years from 1936-1941, the utilities paid an average of $20 in commissions, discounts, etc., for every thousand dollars they borrowed.

After 1941 when rule U-50 went into effect, however, the utilities paid an average of $6.58 for every thousand dollars they borrowed.

This saving also meant reduced rates for consumers, since electricity, gas, rail rates and other public-service rates are based on over-all costs. And the cost of floating bond issues is invariably passed on to the consumer public.

However, the vigorous opposition of Robert R. Young, then of the Chesapeake and Ohio Railroad, together with Cyrus Eaton, the Cleveland banker, helped change the noncompetitive flotation of utility stocks and bonds, and rule U-50 was adopted.

Today, however, a quiet drive is under way to kill competitive bidding. Spearheading the drive is the new Republican SEC Chairman Ralph H. Demmler, former law partner of Sen. Dave Reed of Pittsburgh, personal attorney for the late Andrew Mellon. Demmler formerly represented the Mellon securities corporation and helped arrange one of the biggest banking mergers of recent years—that between Mellon securities and the first Boston company.

Red 'Outlaws' Swell Ranks Of Free China's Guerrillas

By FRED SPARKS

NEA Staff Correspondent

TACHEN, Nationalist Guerrilla Island Off Red China—(NEA)—A Russian-style jeep with four Chinese tommy-guns leads a convoy past a roadside stone Buddha carved in the lonesome Singhai Mountains. "Shotgun riders" are on each of 10 trucks hauling food, hardware and clothing.

The leader twists around a pass and brakes hard before a barricade of boulders. Anti-Communist guerrillas, snuggled among the gray rocky slopes like lizards, open fire and flip grenades.

Ambush! A traditional ambush with odds on the attacker. If GI drivers slain in Korean ambushes could testify, they'd agree guerrillas strike only when vastly superior.

There's a feeble attempt by the guards to shoot back at people they can't see. But soon the Communist hands rise like candidates acknowledging a convention demonstration.

Several are pistol-whipped for effect, the rest forced to load the raiders' pack animals. Tires are slashed and by night guerrillas fondle the loot in lofty cave and hut—and Communists, stripped of shoes, raise blisters hiking to the next town.

A messenger who shuttles between raider GHQ on these offshore islands and mainland mountain bands, describes the above recent ambush as a "shopping operation" by Guerrilla Chief Mohammed Ma. Outlaws can't buy groceries in supermarkets.

Mohammed Ma, who wears red fez and white beard, faces east to praise Allah three daily, then faces north to curse Malenkov. His Moslem followers, with more disguises than the Thief of Baghdad, come to town to put a fatal finger on any local bureaucrat who violently promotes Peiping's persecutions.

Pleasant reports come from Mohammed Ma and other bands living in reasonable security in rugged strips east and west of Canton and in Sikang Province, next Burma's jungles.

Refugees from Red gonn squads are swelling the ranks. Farmers, to spite the hated collectivists, are more willing to contribute food after five years of Communist administration.

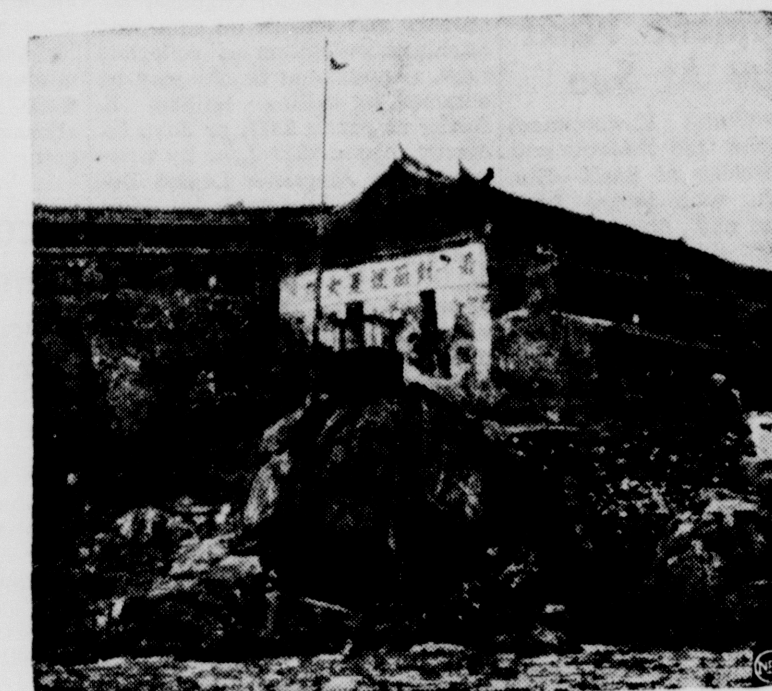

Such outlaws won't topple Dictator Mao by Tuesday, but by guerrillas raiding the coast and pirating shipping, they're further responsibilities for tired Communist generals who haven't had a furlough in 20 years.

The guerrillas were badly mauled in 1950 by a Red army sweep. However, all through Asia—in Indo-China, Malaya, the Philippines—I've learned it is as impossible to erase every outlaw as it is to comb out every speck of dandruff—and you can't shampoo mountain or jungle. Today the pressure is off, as Red garrisons must be staffed from Tibet to North Korea.

Communists long regarded guerrilla warfare as their private property, as if Karl Marx was the first to advise garroting a senry with piano wire.

They sapped Nationalist strength for years by nibbling at the flanks like malarial mosquitoes. Now they're sampling their own medicine, for in Asia the policeman's lot is not a happy one.

cigars—in Havana.

My messenger friend, whose secret wife alerts guerrillas from her vantage point as a Communist official's concubine (proving there are many ways to serve freedom), described a typical mountain band, 100 strong.

Currently they reside in bamboo and rock shacks 12 miles from a road, usually shrouded by clouds. They keep goats, chickens and pigs, but depend on outside supporters (and raids) for rice and matches, doled out singly, being that precious.

In winter snow is melted for water and in summer scoops catch rain.

They can hit the trail within the hour if sentries or village friends flash warning. They've little fear; it would take several divisions to corks all escape.

Countless rifles were hidden during the Red conquest. The shortage is fighters and the band seeks expansion to 100 men, women and boys on the triggers. Now they muster 60.

The leader, an ex-Nationalist captain, contacts other bands by runner who in turn contacts these islands.

Each evening, around the community table, he urges patience; avoid major battle, raid only for essentials, prepare to aid great liberation forces forming.

A lad wanting to enlist doesn't apply in writing. He walks deep into the hills until picked up, like two Red army deserters recently.

There are no desertions from the guerrilla band—to go "downhill" would be deserting to the galleys.

Two-Way Stretch

"Secretary Benson claims to be quite worried over Miss Agriculture's bulging surplus, but he is very much mistaken if he thinks he can keep her in shape with a two-way stretch, a flexible price support program. I say the only way to firm her up securely is with the rigid stays of fixed price supports. Flexible supports may be more modern but nothing ever held up like the rigid stays of grandmother's days."—Sen. Robert S. Kerr (D-Okla.) in a Jan. 28 newsletter.

Behind The Scenes

"This writer has taken some good-natured kidding from his colleagues (when they called me) 'Henry Clay Number II'. The reason: since Henry Clay is remembered primarily for the compromise he effected, I have been awarded that title for my work in bringing about a successful compromise between Chairman Joe McCarthy (D-Wis.) of the Senate Permanent Investigating Subcommittee and the three Democratic Senators who walked out of that Subcommittee early last summer . . . after several weeks of talking with first one faction and then the other."—Sen. Karl E. Mundt (R-S.D.) in a Feb. 3 newsletter.

BUSINESS SIGNS—"I am not one of the so-called 'prophecs of doom'. I believe there are sufficient factors operating in our economy to support a relatively high level of business and employment. It would, however, be stupid to ignore the present rising unemployment and slackening of business in many lines and areas."—Rep. Charles R. Howell (D-N.J.) in a Feb. 1 newsletter.

Pledge Redeemed?

"For many years the hope of balancing the federal budget—bringing spending down to the level of income—seemed a remote one indeed. By CLINT DUNATHAN

CENTURY AGO—William J. "Bill" Karas, superintendent-engineer of the Delta County Road Commission, stopped in the other day to show me a photostat copy of an old map—a map of "Lake Superior and the Northern Part of Michigan" published in 1855.

Bill had requested the copy of the Marquette County Road Commission, and they in turn had received their copies from Herbert Larson, superintendent of the Iron County Road Commission.

"Larson is interested in the history of the Upper Peninsula and his county," Bill explained. "He knows his subject, too, for I heard him give a talk at one of our Road Association conferences."

It is interesting to note, in referring to the several counties as above, that back in 1855 there were only seven counties in the entire Upper Peninsula. Now, 99 years later, there are 15.

THE BIG COUNTY—The seven counties of the Upper Peninsula in 1855 were Delta, Schoolcraft, Michilimackinac (Mackinac), Chippewa, Marquette, Houghton and Ontonagon.

In those days their outlines were entirely different than today with exception of Mackinac and Houghton, which were approximately the same as now. The others were much larger.

Delta County was a triangular-shaped area whose north line extended from the Menominee River at a point near the present city of Iron Mountain eastward to Point Patterson on Lake Michigan beyond the present city of Manistique.

Southward, Delta County included all of present Menominee County and the city of Menominee.

The trimming down over the period of nearly a century gave parts of the 1855 Delta County to Menominee, Dickinson, Schoolcraft and Marquette counties.

PLACE NAMES—There has been considerable controversy over the spelling and derivation of place names in this area. The 1855 map only adds to the confusion.

Escanaba River is spelled "Escanaba"; Taconish River is "Tycoosh" on the old map; Big Bay de Noc is "Big Bay des Noulina."

Bark River is "Bark Creek" and Menominee was spelled "Menominee" in 1855. Peninsula Point is named "Pt. aux Baies," as clearly as I can make out without the aid of a reading glass, and Washington Island has two names—Washington and Potowotomi Island.

Manistique River and Manistique Lake (and there are several on the map) are all spelled Manistique.

Only cities appearing on the map are St. Ignace, Menominee, Sault Ste. Marie, Marquette—and possibly Eagle Harbor and Copper Harbor are meant to designate communities.

LOST TO MEMORY—The names of some locations, perhaps known only to the surveyors, trappers, and a few Indians, are no longer recalled even among the oldest inhabitants.

Antioch was a town on Beaver Island now known as St. James; the Chocolate River near Marquette is now spelled and pronounced Chocoley; Michigamami is Michigamme, and Tequamemon Bay at the east end of Lake Superior is Whitefish Bay.

The spelling of Tahquamenon River, as of today, has lost some of the simplicity of the earlier spelling, indicating that change does not always bring simplification.

The present Pemenee Falls on the Menominee River, one of the beauty spots of the Upper Peninsula but seldom seen by the tourist, derived from the 1855 spelling—Pemenee.

And how do you think Quinnesec was spelled nearly 100 years ago? Bequenesec!

THE UNCHANGING—Although place name spellings may change and some early-day settlements may disappear, there is always the unchanging elements of the region—the bordering Great Lakes and the topography of the land itself.

Lake Superior on the map arches majestically above the Upper Peninsula; Isle Royale holds to its rocky foundation; the two bays that indent Delta County in northern Green Bay are nearly as well drawn as they are today.

Near Marquette there is designated "Iron Mountain," locating the Ishpeming-Negaunee area where iron ore was first discovered in the early 1840's.

There is no trace on the map of communities we know well—Escanaba and Gladstone. For the map was published eight years before Escanaba was settled, and some 30 years before men established Gladstone.

Questions and Answers

Q—When did Members of Congress last receive a raise in pay?

A—In 1947. The Legislative Reorganization Act of 1946 provided that Members' salaries be raised from $10,000 to $12,500 with an extra $2,500 as an expense account. The 18-member Commission on Judicial and Congressional Salaries recommended Jan. 15 that Members' pay be raised to $27,500; Members be given expense money for six round-trips to the home District each year, instead of the present one; and further study be given the Congressional retirement plan. The Commission also recommended salary increases for all federal judges.

A—According to Senate Parliamentarian Charles L. Watkins, a proposed Constitutional amendment has always been introduced in the form of a joint resolution "by custom." He says there is no requirement that the legislation take this form, that such a measure could be in the form of a Senate or House bill.

The Doctor Says . . . New Strides Are Being Made In Care of Chronically Ill

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D. — Written for NEA Service

Everyone is agreed that one of our greatest health problems is chronic illness, including those diseases which lead to abnormal change or behavior in some part of the body, and which last for a long time. Included among the chronic disorders are tuberculosis, mental disease, diabetes, asthma, the effects of polio or accident, and many other things.

Some of these chronic disorders are more serious than others. A person with hemorrhoids, for example, is generally hampered only slightly in occupation, whereas someone with severe rheumatoid arthritis may be completely disabled for a long period of time.

In any event, chronic illness of all kinds is most important. Three out of every four patients in hospitals are there for this reason, and 60 per cent of all disability is accounted for by chronic illness. The time lost each year from productive activity because of chronic disease is believed to be more than a billion days or the same as it nearly four million people were unable to work for a full year.

The problems of chronic illness include, therefore, both the medical and the socio-economic aspects since a person of working age, severely disabled by chronic illness, is often unable to do much toward the support of himself, the family, and the community. Furthermore a severe chronic illness too often leads to the exhaustion of available funds, so that the continued care becomes an enormous burden on the family or the community.

GROUP STUDIES PROBLEM

All this is fairly well known, but there are encouraging features also about this problem. For example, there is now a commission on chronic illness established by the American Medical Association, the American Hospital Association, the American Public Health Association, and the American Public Welfare Association which is studying this problem.

The advance of medicine itself, particularly in the detection and improved treatment of many diseases which formerly became chronic and disabling, has added to the improvement of the situation. The increased emphasis on what is known as rehabilitation of the chronically ill—that is, fitting those who are partially disabled into jobs for which they are suited—is also a step forward of the highest importance.

Judge Considers Roosevelt Case

By GRAHAM PERRY
PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—A judge will announce within a few days how much temporary support James Roosevelt, who claims he's worse than broke, shall pay his estranged wife Romelle, who demands $3,500 a month.

A four-day hearing on the matter wound up Wednesday with her attorneys accusing the eldest son of the late President Franklin Roosevelt of "making false statements for the purpose of concealing his assets."

Roosevelt's attorney said Mrs. Roosevelt will have to get along with $30 to $40 dresses instead of $300 ones.

Superior Judge Kurtz Kauffman took the case under submission. The support order will be effective pending trial of their separate maintenance suits. In hers, Mrs. Roosevelt, 38, accuses her 46-year-old husband of adultery, naming three co-respondents. She also filed letters signed by him stating he admitted infidelities with nine other women.

Roosevelt has denied all the charges.

He already is paying his wife, who has temporary custody of their three small children, $1,073 a month.

Judge Kauffman said his decision will be based on Roosevelt's ability to pay as shown by his income and disbursements the past five or six years.

Top Butter Price Cut 8¼ Cents

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Agriculture Department announced that the cut in support prices for top grade butter will average about 8¼ cents a pound.

The reduction reflects the decision by Secretary of Agriculture Benson, announced Monday, to cut dairy supports from the present level of 90 per cent of parity to 75 per cent, effective April 1. Parity is a standard for measuring farm prices declared by law to be fair to farmers in terms of prices they pay.

Benson in announcing the support price cut said it was expected to be reflected in retail prices. He took the stand that present supports are discouraging consumption of dairy products and causing excessive supplies to move into government hands. The government now owns more than 350 million dollars worth of such products.

German War Bride Has Had Struggle To Live

HOWELL—Christa Mazer has struggled to live. A German war-bride, she escaped from the Russians in 1945 in a fighter plane, was three times delayed in getting a visa to join her American husband, and broke down with active tuberculosis one year after she came to this country.

The vivacious mother of two, now a patient at the Michigan State tuberculosis sanatorium at Howell, dreams of "going home to Willow Run, to be with my children my husband, to live normally, without fear." Christa's husband, John, with their two children, Andrea, 3, and Manfred, 2, live at Willow Run, where John was a rigger in an auto plant.

The cost of Christa's hospital care is being paid by tax funds. Her story is told by the Michigan Tuberculosis Association, as "a salute to the sound public health policies and humanitarian principles of Michigan lawmakers and administration." The TB association cited a double return to taxpayers, "in medical treatment to save lives, and hospital isolation to guard against the spread of TB germs to others."

Native Of Kiel

Christa is a native of Kiel in northern Germany. Working at an East Prussian civil air field in 1945, she escaped from advancing Russian troops in a fighter plane. The plane landed in Danzig, Germany. After a harrowing six-day train ride, Christa arrived in Berlin, and later made her way to Kiel, where "I helped clear rubble" after the allied victory.

She met John Mazer, Pittsburgh, a seaman in the merchant marine, in Hamburg, Germany. They were introduced by mutual friends, fell in love, and six weeks later were married. However, when Christa applied for a visa to come to America with John, a "routine" chest X-ray showed a suspicious shadow. Visa was refused.

After a year of hospital care, doctors pronounced Christa's tuberculosis "arrested," and she again applied for a visa. By the time the visa was granted, "John and I were expecting, and the shipping lines said I could not board ship until after the baby's arrival."

Vexed By Regulations

A daughter, Andrea, was born in October of 1950. Christa again applied for visa, but was detained by a new U. S. ruling, which made it impossible for any German ever belonging to any youth or political organization under the Nazi government to gain entry into the United States.

During school days, Christa says the Germans "forced us to be members of what was called BDM—a political girl scouts."

In 1951, the regulation was relaxed, and Christa came to this country, where she and John first lived with his parents, near Pittsburgh. Later, the couple moved to Detroit, and finally to Willow Run. Their son, Manfred, was born two years ago.

Meanwhile, Christa had periodic chest X-rays. Late in 1951, one of the chest pictures showed that her tuberculosis apparently was becoming active again.

Shortly after, she was taken to the Michigan State Sanatorium, at Howell. At home, John's mother is taking care of the two children. Christa sees the youngsters monthly, but says that they know her as "the other mamma in the hospital."

While in the sanatorium, Christa is spending time developing a natural ability in art, a vocation "I always loved but never had time to study before."

LANSING (AP) — State Highway Commissioner Charles M. Ziegler today fired G. Palmer Seeley, head of the Grand Rapids right-of-way office for the department on charges of "gross irregularities."

Ziegler said the dismissal was authorized by the State Civil Service Department shortly after Atty. Gen. Frank G. Millard declared an investigation showed Seeley was guilty of improper conduct in office.

Seeley was charged after an investigation by the Attorney General and Auditor General into accusations of improper land dealings in Western Michigan in the purchase of highway right-of-way.

Michigan Reds Given Sentences

By ROGER GOELZ

DETROIT (AP)—Six Michigan Communists today were given the choice of prison sentences ranging from four to five years or going to Russia.

In addition Federal Judge Frank A. Picard fined each of the defendants $10,000.

A jammed courtroom heard Judge Picard deliver a scathing criticism of the defendants in passing sentence.

The defendants, Saul Weillman, 48; Mrs. Helen Winter, 45; Nat Ganley, 48; Thomas B. Dennis, Jr., 35; Philip Schatz, 39, and William Allan 46, expressed no emotion as Judge Picard delivered the sentence.

Mrs. Winter and Allen were sentenced to four year terms; Ganley, five years; Dennis, four years six months; Weillman, four years and eight months, and Schatz, four years and four months.

"Under federal law, I can change this sentence any time within the next 60 days," Judge Picard said, "and if any of you should decide to want to go to Russia, I would be glad to do so."

Army Air Force Engineers Study Marquette Airport

MARQUETTE—Ten Air Force and Army Corps of Engineers officers have arrived in Marquette and are scheduled to confer with representatives of the Marquette County Board of Supervisors regarding a proposal for the use of the K. I. Sawyer Airport.

Friday morning the Air Force officers and civilian representatives of the Engineers Corps made an inspection of the Sawyer Airport at Sands, and held a closed meeting at noon at the Hotel Northland for the purpose of reviewing each others' reports on the desirability of the use of the field as a jet base.

On Feb. 10 the Air Force announced an enlargement program, in which it was stated that work probably would be started in July on the expansion of the Sawyer Port for use as an Air Force base.

Although the announcement from Washington, D. C. stated only that the Sawyer base would be large enough to accommodate a 25-plane squadron, it is presumed that jet planes would be based here, as they are at the Kinross Airport, near Sault Ste. Marie.

Marquette County's air base is to be similar to the one planned for Traverse City, and both will be part of the Air Force's new 13-base, 137-wing expansion program.

At this afternoon's conference with County Board representatives, the Air Force officers were expected to discuss terms for use of the field and offer a specific proposition to the Board with respect to taking over the Airport as a United States Air Force base.

Reuther Shooting Suspects Freed At Windsor, Ont.

DETROIT (AP)—Canadian authorities released Donald Ritchie, key witness and defendant, and his uncle, Clarence Jacobs, the Ritchie-named triggerman in the assassination attempt on CIO president Walter Reuther.

Essex County Judge Albert J. Gordon dismissed extradition hearings against the two men in Windsor, Ont.

Ritchie had signed a statement before Wayne County Prosecutor Gerald K. O'Brien naming Jacobs, Peter Lombardo, Santo (Sam) Perrone and Carl Renda as being involved in the 1948 shooting. But Ritchie later repudiated his entire story.

Ralph Garber, assistant Wayne County prosecutor, said he didn't know whether the release of the two men would affect pending court action against Renda. Renda was scheduled to face trial March 15 on conspiracy charges based on Ritchie's statements.

Juveniles Sought For Theft Of Car Traced By Radio

MENOMINEE—A radio-alert between Menominee and Marinette county sheriff departments brought arrest at 10:30 p. m. Tuesday of a 19-year-old Laurium youth and a 14-year-old Escanaba boy, shortly after they abandoned, in Menominee, a car they had stolen in Stephenson about 8:30 p. m. The car belongs to Gerald Martin principal of the Stephenson High School, who had parked it near the Catholic church there.

The Laurium youth, Robert Henry Norman, and the Escanaba juvenile were picked up in Marinette at Hall and Marinette avenues by Farrell Davidson, Marinette County traffic officer, who observed them trying to hitch-hike their way south from Marinette. They were turned over to Sheriff Edward J. Reindl after waiving extradition.

Reindl reports the boys admitted stealing the car and driving it to Menominee where they abandoned it on 16th Street near the home of James Costello, Sr. In their confusion, the boys stated they feared federal prosecution if they drove the car across the state line into Marinette.

Reindl said Norman had a previous police record of breaking and entering and that the Escanaba juvenile also had a delinquency record. Both are held in the County jail. Reindl said he would ask a warrant charging car theft against Norman and will turn the Escanaba youth over to juvenile authorities.

The boys said they hooked a ride from Escanaba to Powers on a freight train, hitch-hiked to Stephenson where they loitered for about 2 1/2 hours before stealing the Martin car and driving to Menominee.

Arrangements for the new service were made by the Soviet Control Commission and the High Commission, the announcement said.

Chinese Red Leader Believed Gravely Ill

HONG KONG (AP)—Mao Tse-Tung may be gravely ill.

The absence of the 60-year-old Chinese Communist leader from an extremely important meeting of his party central committee in Peiping has raised speculation here about Mao's health.

The Peiping radio Thursday night, evidently feeling obliged to offer some explanation of Mao's absence, said the leader was not present because he was on a vacation. But such a meeting was far too important to be passed up, even by Mao, for a holiday.

Activities In Petty Larceny Hit Two States

IRON RIVER—The dime novel bad boys of Iron county crime annals, Tom Knipp, 24, and his brother, Landon "Billy" Knipp, 17 are wanted for horse theft in Ohio when they square accounts with justice in Iron county next week on a charge of larceny from a car.

Sheriff Edward P. Sandri revealed yesterday that Ohio authorities accuse the Knipp brothers of stealing a Shetland pony at McArthur, Ohio in Vinson county and transporting it to Mansfield, Ohio in a second hand hearse they had acquired as a joy buggy.

The hearse is lying in state in an Iron River used car lot, a lugubrious vehicle, converted from a former LaSalle ambulance. The Knipp had fled in the hearse from Sandri's deputies. Under-sheriff Leo Kiviranta and Sub Possanza, last month when they tracked the boys down for theft of a battery and tools from a car parked at Stanley lake.

The last time the Knipp were in trouble with the law in Iron county, Tom was sentenced to spend 18 months in Marquette prison for car theft. He was released after six months for good behavior. They went to Mansfield in northern Ohio where their mother had moved, and they returned here shortly before Christmas and were living in a shack south of Caspian when the posse of two deputies overtook them.

Many Boy Scouts Will Compete In Klondike Derby

The Sixth Annual Klondike Derby for Boy Scouts of the Red Buck district will be held Saturday at the Gladstone Ski Park, starting at 10:30 a. m.

Competition will be conducted in two divisions this year, Andy Houston, district Scout executive announced. Boy Scouts will compete in patrol units against other Scout patrols and Explorer Scouts will compete in the division for the older Scouts organized as Explorer crews.

Scouts will pull Klondike sledges and cover an exploration course, stopping at "Klondike cities" along the routes where they will solve problems, using Scout skills learned during their weekly troop meetings. Types of problems which will be encountered are first aid, firebuilding, rope work, ice rescue, compass, Morse signalling and camp skills.

The derby is a highlight of Scout patrol and Explorer crew competition in the Red Buck district.

After the exploration course is completed, the Klondike sledges, which are conducted by the scouts, will be judged in a separate contest.

The top ranking teams in this event will represent the district in competition against the best Scout teams in the Upper Peninsula at the Hiawathaland council Klondike derby finals in Munising on March 14.

Scouts from the following communities will participate in tomorrow's derby at Gladstone: Carney, Nadeau, Hermansville, Powers, Spaulding, Escanaba, Wells, Gladstone, Rapid River, Nahma, Cooks, Garden and Manistique.

Industrial Shifts From East Predicted

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Gov. Francis Cherry thinks eastern industrialists "know they will have to evacuate the East." He's trying to sell them on locating in Arkansas.

Back from a New York trip, Cherry said:

"I got the impression that everyone knew that he would have to move eventually." He referred to the possible military targets provided by concentrations of industry.

Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP)—Stock market prices held fairly steady today outside the railroad section.

Rails were down as a group and helped pull the entire market a shade lower. Most divisions were narrowly mixed.

Outside of one or two key stocks, prices swung in a small fractional range. General Electric, which gained three points Thursday, was down around a point today in a comparatively mild reaction.

Trading was below Thursday's 1 1/2 million shares.

Higher prices were paid for 20th Century-Fox, American Telephone, U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel, and United Aircraft.

Lower were New York Central, Southern Pacific, General Electric, American Can, Chrysler, Good-year, and Montgomery Ward.

U. S. government securities eased.

When Baby Starts Eating Prepare For A Mess

By DOROTHY V. WHIPPLE, M.D.
AP Newsfeatures Writer
Little children are pretty messy at their meals. It takes growing up to learn to eat neatly. A certain amount of mess you have to put up with, but there are limits. We want children to eat because they enjoy eating, and if we fuss at them too much about table manners we can destroy their zest for food. Little children are just not coordinated enough to eat without some spilling.

It's The Food That Counts
So long as a child is getting the food into his mouth and eating, put up with the mess. Prepare for it, so the cleaning up is not too difficult. A piece of linoleum under his chair, a plastic mat in front of him reduce your after meal labors.

Arrange the food so that he can eat as much as possible without help. Let him eat many things in his fingers; it's easier and more fun than utensils. A carrot can be cooked whole and eaten like a banana. Green beans are much more interesting long. Have as much meat on a bone as possible. Peas, lima beans, can be picked up one at a time in the fingers.

Put a toothpick into each bite of such foods as boiled potato or hamburger and let the child pick up the bite and suck it off the toothpick.

Fingers and toothpicks cut down the amount of spooning the child has to do.

Custards, cereals, soft foods have to be eaten with a spoon. A child can manage a spoon for some foods if he doesn't have so much spooning he gets tired and bored with it.

Soups in a Cup
Soups can be drunk if you put them in a cup. If there are vegetables left in the bottom of the cup they can be spooned in, but there is much less spooning if the liquid is drunk off first.

Milk, of course, is drunk. It adds interest if the child is allowed to pour the milk from a little pitcher into his glass. Be sure there is not very much milk in the pitcher at one time. You can add more as the meal progresses.

Leave the youngster alone and don't scold him for his spillings so long as he is really eating. Help him if he needs help with the food that is more difficult to handle.

Mrs. Ralph complained that sometimes young Bob just messed with his food. He'd squeeze, the food in his hands, smear it on the back of his chair or throw it on the floor. Then he'd pour his milk onto his plate of sometimes directly on the floor.

This is the kind of a mess you shouldn't put up with; it's a destructive mess.

Don't make a fuss and don't scold. Just wipe off the child's face and hands, take him out of his chair and tell him he is finished eating so the meal is over. Don't give him any more food until the next meal.

He will learn in short order that food is to be eaten, not played with.

In the course of time, your youngster will develop table manners that are an exact copy of yours. Children love to copy as soon as they are old enough to do so. Nagging about table manners doesn't help a child learn more quickly; it just destroys his zest for food.

We want children to eat with enthusiasm all through childhood. When a youngster is quite young he gets much of his eating pleasure just from being able to get the food into his mouth by himself. If he spills a little it doesn't bother him; try not to let it bother you. When he is older he will enjoy eating neatly—just as you do.

If you use glass or pottery cooking dishes, remember not to plunge them into cold water while they are still hot. Soak them to loosen any food that has crusted on them; if there are stubborn spots remove them with steel wool or other metal scourer.

Germfask Ban Lifted Today

The ban on the school hot lunch program and community eating in Germfask was lifted today by Dr. R. A. Tearnan, director of the Alger-Schoolcraft Health department.

The restriction had been in effect one month, following an outbreak of infectious hepatitis.

A total of 25 cases was reported to the health department here, but no new cases have been reported in the past few weeks.

No one in Germfask is seriously ill from the disease now, Dr. Tearnan said Thursday afternoon. Those stricken with the infection are making a good recovery, he added.

Church Women Here Sponsor Day Of Prayer

The annual World Day of Prayer will be observed in Manistique with a service at the First Baptist Church Friday, March 5, beginning at 2:30 p. m.

"That they may have life" (John 10:10) is the theme for the World Day of Prayer this year.

The Day is observed by Christians in the United States and 118 countries on the first Friday of Lent. There has been an uninterrupted growth in the movement and there now are approximately 19,000 observances in the United States, church leaders here note.

Services begin in New Zealand and the Tonga Islands, west of the date line, and continue throughout the day, closing with the observance on St. Lawrence Island, Alaska.

For centuries, church leaders state, women have prayed for a better world, individually and in groups. This regular observance began in 1887 and, because the response was so great, the first Friday of Lent was eventually set aside as a World Day of Prayer.

The purpose of the Day is to unite all Christians in a bond of prayer and to make an offering for Christian missions at home and abroad. In the United States, the sponsor is the General Department of United Church Women of the National Council of Churches.

Each year the program comes from a different country. The 1954 service comes from Sarah Chakko, president of Isabella Thoburn College, Lucknow, India.

Hearing Aid Needs Chance To Help, Says U-M Doctor

ANN ARBOR—"I venture to say that there are more hearing aids in bureau drawers today than there are in active use for the hard of hearing."

Concerning himself with the patient's apparent unwillingness to learn how to tolerate a hearing device, Dr. Albert C. Furstenberg, chairman of the University of Michigan's Department of Otolaryngology and dean of the U-M Medical School, also says that using a hearing device is like "learning a new and foreign language."

The new world of sound ushered in through the tiny mechanism of a hearing aid is indeed a new world. The aid does not transmit sounds which are received by the normal ear.

Because the instrument conveys new and different impulses to the brain, the patient has to learn how to interpret these sounds.

"The power to interpret sounds conveyed through a hearing aid often requires weeks or months of diligent effort and study on the part of the patient," the dean indicates.

For that reason, he advises that the hearing aid be worn all the waking hours of the day.

Dr. Furstenberg also dismisses two superstitions about hearing aids. They do not improve the auditory nerves so that the patient eventually can throw his hearing aid away. Nor does the mechanism "overwork" the nerves and hasten their deterioration.

CATCH WAS MISTAKE

YAKIMA (AP)—Jerry Miller, almost 11, and his brother, Donald E. Miller, Jr., 12, were playing catch with a yellow-headed thumb tack. Just as Donald tossed the tack, Jerry laughed. The tack smacked into Jerry's mouth, stuck in his throat. He had to have a doctor take it out.

Two More Bouts Added To Manistique's Card

MANISTIQUE—Two bouts have been added to the amateur boxing card to be held at the high school gym here Saturday night, it was announced today by Fr. George Pernaski.

Two Manistique fighters will be added to the program in bouts against outside competition. Conrad Leston will meet John Meyer of Menominee and Norman Wood will fight Jim Beyer of Menominee. All four fighters are welterweights.

The fourth annual CYO boxing program is headlined by a bout between Manistique's featherweight champion Harvard Lancour and Dick Cavil, open division Golden Gloves lightweight from Green Bay, Wis.

Boxers from Escanaba, Marquette and Menominee will also appear on the program. There will be 12 bouts in all, including an exhibition between two Manistique 100-pounders, Lee Billings and Bill McGlynn.

A capacity crowd is expected as six Upper Peninsula mitt champs put their titles on the line against challengers. Four of the fighters are from Escanaba, Ron Vanderlinden, Dean Kalishek, Jim Brown and John Roberts. All except Roberts fought in the U. P. Golden Gloves tournament recently and Vanderlinden won the U. P. lightweight championship.

One of the feature bouts on the program will match the Upper Peninsula and Wisconsin open and novice bantamweight champions in the semi-windup.
Harry Nelson of Manistique is the novice 118-pound champ and Tommy Betts of Marquette is the open 118-pound title holder.

Report Seton Hall Is Rule Violator

CHICAGO — Seton Hall was reported to be on a list of alleged violators of the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. code today as the NCAA committee on infractions began reviewing cases of possible nonconformity.

The latest action was last August against Notre Dame, Michigan State and Arizona State of Tempe. Notre Dame was censured for holding football "trysts," and Michigan State for doing the same in basketball. Arizona State was placed on a two-year probation for infraction of rules regarding pay to athletes.

Members of the committee include Ralph W. Aigler, Michigan.

MANISTIQUE—The Merchants copped the playoff for top place in the City League basketball standings here last night by blasting Cooks 98-72.

Cooks opened with a 22-16 first quarter lead but the Merchants led at halftime, 39-36. A torrid second half scoring attack which produced 59 points, 34 in the final quarter, clinched the victory.

Paul Hinkson set the scoring pace with 30 and Rudy Brandstrom contributed 22 for the winners. Lund's 27 was high for Cooks. The Merchants play at St. Ignace on Sunday, Feb. 21, at 8:15.

Player Draft Near In NHL?

CHICAGO — The Sun-Times said today that James Norris, who recently sold his interests in the Detroit Red Wings, drove a bargain to get a National Hockey League player draft plan.

The newspaper said: "Norris agreed, after much haggling, to sell his Red Wing interest to his brother, Bruce, and sister, Marguerite, on the condition that the rest of the league members approve a player draft system."

Norris and Arthur Wirtz owned part of Detroit Olympia which controls the Red Wings, the Sun-Times said. Bruce Norris, in turn, had some interest in the Chicago Black Hawks and was vice president of the team.

The owners have assured Norris they will vote for a player draft at the next NHL meeting, the Sun-Times said.

More Teams Named To Postseason Tourneys

NEW YORK — College basketball's big postseason tournaments added to their fields Thursday.

The National Invitation Tournament named Niagara immediately after the Purple Eagles whacked New York University 72-54 in Madison Square Garden.

Earlier in the day the National Collegiate Athletic Assn. announced that Oklahoma City would play Bradley on the latter's court March 9 in a first-round game. The winner will meet the Big Seven champion in the second round. Colorado and Kansas currently are tied for the Big Seven lead.

Teams In Fold
Along with Niagara, the NIT has Duquesne, No. 1 ranked team in The Associated Press poll; Western Kentucky, No. 4; Wichita, No. 15, which trimmed St. Louis 79-73 last night; Dayton, No. 17, and Louisville.

The NCAA has Seattle, No. 7; Oklahoma City, No. 16; Bradley, and Idaho State.

Kentucky, ranked just behind Duquesne, took another step toward the NCAA Thursday night by beating Tennessee 90-63 for its 20th victory without defeat. That makes the Wildcats 11-0 in the Southeastern Conference to Louisiana State's 9-0 mark. If they keep on winning, they'll play off for the conference title and ensuing NCAA berth.

Nears Grand Slam
Frank Selvy moved one step closer Thursday night to a grand slam of major college scoring records by tossing in 45 in Furman's 93-49 win over Mercer. His 21 free throws made his career total 625, bettering the 611 mark of Walt Dukes. Seton Hall's 1953 All America center.

The one mark still to go for Selvy is the season free throw record of 332 set by Johnny O'Brien, also a 1953 All America player. Selvy has 286, with four games and the Southern Conference tournament still to play.

In other games Thursday night, Marquette, No. 11 team nationally, got a basket by Gene Shue and two fouls by Bob Kessler at the end to turn back Georgetown 53-50, and Colorado A & M, No. 19, trimmed Colorado State 68-56.

Coleman Likely To Be Regular

By BEN OLAN

NEW YORK — The comeback of Jerry Coleman took on added significance for the New York Yankees today as the world champions were faced with the prospect of playing without Billy Martin, their star second baseman, for the next two seasons.

Coleman, who rejoined the Yankees last August after 16 months in the Marines, now figures to succeed his successor.

Martin, the sparkplug in the 1953 World Series against Brooklyn, was notified Thursday by his Berkeley, Calif., draft board that his appeal of a 1-A classification has been turned down. He likely will be called up in March.

Billy, who claimed five dependents, said, "I'll go happily if they can figure out some way to support my dependents."

Coleman eager to regain his old job, already is working out at St. Petersburg, Fla., in advance of the regular squad.

The Yankees had good and bad news on contract signing. Allie Reynolds returned to his Oklahoma home without signing his 1954 contract. Pitcher Bob Kuzava and infielder Willy Miranda came to terms.

Ohio State Swimmers Will Be Tough To Beat

By GLENN ENGLE

ANN ARBOR — "He's got the aces and I've got the kings. The only question is whether there are enough kings in the deck."

That's Matt Mann's analysis of the Big Ten swimming championships coming up at his Michigan pool in two weeks.

The "he", of course is Mike Peppe of Ohio State, Mann's perennial rival for Big Ten and national swimming honors.

What Mann was driving at was that where Ohio State can grab big blocks of points on first places—the aces—he'll have to pile up points on seconds, thirds, fourths, fifths and sixths. A first place is worth seven points and the others range from five down to one.

Figures Ohio Wins
The way he figures it, Ohio will win the 50-yard, 100-yard, 220-yard, 440-yard and 1500-meter swims, both backstroke events and both diving contests.

That leaves the individual medley, freestyle relay and the breaststroke. Mann says his boys should take all of these—leaving no firsts for the other eight schools.

The venerable Michigan coach is counting on Bumpy Jones in the individual medley and Burt Wardrop in the breaststroke. The freestyle relay team, he says, "may or may not be" the same foursome, which set a new national collegiate mark in the event last Saturday against Michigan State.

What's happened to the Michigan basketball team?
"They've just not gotten back on the beam since exams," explains coach Bill Perigo.

"We hit our peak just before the end of last semester when we beat Ohio State and Michigan State and should have beaten Indiana. Then came that two-week layoff during exams, and things haven't been the same since."

Not So Sure Now
In their last five games the Wolverines have scraped by Washington University by one point and lost four straight in the Big Ten. Left on the schedule are Wisconsin, Minnesota, Illinois, Purdue and Michigan State.

Now the once optimistic Perigo concedes it will be tough for his team, with a 2-7 Big Ten mark, to improve on its 3-15 record last season.

In This Corner

With Ray Crandall

Somebody asked us how many points the St. Joe team would score if each player should hit his highest previous output all in one game . . . A quick check of the box scores of past games reveals that the Trojans, under those circumstances, would come up with 109 points . . . Here's how it would go . . . John Berrigan, 30; Dick Bryson, 29; Jerry McDonough, 18; Jim Zimmerman, 17; and Dick Cass, 15.

Using the same standard for the Escanaba Eskymos, we find them with a 99-point potential . . . Jim Bolm leads off with 26; Bill Savard, 22; Tom Gregoire, 19; Bill LeMire, 17, and Jim Mon-grain, 15.

The Saturday night amateur boxing program at the Manistique High School promises to be an interesting one . . . The six fighters pictured at the top of this page are all Upper Peninsula Golden Gloves champions and all will appear on the 10-bout card . . . One big advantage in putting on a paired-match show such as this one is that you can match the fighters according to ability better than in a tournament . . . Boxing fans are eager to see classy Harvard Lancour in action again . . . He had no opposition in the U. P. tournament here.

St. Joe's 70-65 victory over Marinette Lourdes Saturday night was more than just another win for the Trojans . . . It meant that St. Joe will be in a seeded position in the district basketball tournament at Stambaugh . . . That win was the fifth against no defeats in Class C competition for the Trojans, the best comparable record of the teams involved in that district.

Speaking of district tournaments, here's an odd situation . . . For the first time since 1950, Marquette, Ishpeming and Negaunee will be competing in the same district tournament . . . For the past three years Marquette has played in the district with Soo, Munising, Newberry and Manistique . . . Calumet and Hancock are the other teams in the district which will play its games at Negaunee . . . Dick Schram of Escanaba will be the head official for the tourney.

Beverly Gentz, 16-year-old Manistique Miss who more than holds her own with her male competitors on the ski slides, left today on the "400" for a television appearance in Chicago . . . Beverly is the only girl registered with the Central Ski Association . . . She and three other members of the Manistique Ski Club, Jim Cowman, Dan Harbick and Jack Swartstrom, will jump in the Central Junior Ski championships at Norge in Chicago Sunday . . . Beverly has been skiing for four years, the past three in sanctioned events.

Aragon Gets Disputed Ring Win Over Davey

By BOB MYERS
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Controversial Art Aragon of Los Angeles held a decision over southpaw Chuck Davey today and two officials of the bout were under suspension as a result of the disputed decision. Touching off an immediate roar of disbelief and disapproval from most of a turnaway crowd of 10,400 fans, Los Angeles' self-styled Golden Boy was awarded a split decision at the end of 10 rousing rounds at the Olympic Auditorium Thursday night. The match was not televised.

Chairman Tony Entenza and Commissioners Everett Sanders and Norman Houston of the California Athletic Commission went into a hurried conference within a matter of minutes.

Officials Suspended
Soon after, Sanders hustled down to Davey's dressing room and announced that the two officials who had voted for Aragon, Referee Mushy Callahan and Judge Joe Stone, had been suspended.

"This is the worst decision I have seen in many years of attending fights," Sanders told Davey, newsmen and a room crammed with hangers-on.

Callahan, a former fighter and a veteran referee, scored the fight 56 points to 54 for Aragon. Stone scored it 55½-54½ for Aragon, under the California 11-point-per-round system.

Two At-Large Teams Named For Tourney
KANSAS CITY (AP)—Bradley University and Oklahoma City U. have been named at-large entrants in the NCAA basketball tournament series.

Bradley, with a 13-8 current record, will meet Oklahoma City (13-5) in a first round elimination game March 9 at Peoria, Ill. The winner will meet the Big Seven champion in the western regional tourney March 13-14 at Stillwater, Okla. Colorado and Kansas are currently tied for the Big Seven lead.

Senators Trade Coan For Orioles' Sievers
ORLANDO, Fla. (AP)—Roy Sievers, American League rookie of the year in 1949, has been traded by the Baltimore Orioles to the Washington Senators in exchange for Gil Coan. Both are outfielders.

The deal, announced here Thursday by the Senators' vice president, Calvin Griffith, was described as a straight trade with no other consideration.

Big Four
Indiana, Iowa, Illinois and Minnesota are the Big Four of the title race. The Illini will be counted out of Iowa defeats them tomorrow.

Defending champion Indiana (9-1), loser 100-90 to Northwestern (4-6) in overtime a week earlier, faces Michigan State (3-6) on the Spartans' home floor Saturday.

Illinois (6-3) invades Iowa (8-2), where the Hawkeyes are bristling after being knocked out of a first-place tie Monday by Ohio State, 77-69.

Minnesota (7-3) plays at Ohio State (4-7).

Charlie Randolph, the other judge, called it for Davey 58-52.

The Associated Press had it 56-54 for Davey, with the Michigan State College graduate winning six rounds, losing three and one even.

Aragon was a 2-1 betting favorite.

Sanders called for a hearing Feb. 24. He said it probably is impossible to reverse the decision, but he declared:

"We are going to cut out these bum decisions and the split decisions. We will not tolerate such a lack of uniformity."

The 27-year-old Davey, sitting on the rubbering table, grinned half-heartedly and said:

"I was the most surprised guy in the house—unless it was Aragon."

by a bit, too—told boxing writers: "Leave those southpaws out of my life. I don't know how to fight them. Maybe it's in my mind. I think Al Cruz, a little feather-weight could knock this guy out."

In the second round the 26-year-old Aragon landed, by the count, seven right-hand punches to Davey's jaw and head. In the fifth he connected with three solid wallops to the head, and in the seventh he shifted to the mid-section and landed two healthy smacks.

The dancing, retreating, jabbing Davey took them all, and kept a constant stream of rights stabbing away at Aragon's chin and damaged left eye.

There were no knockdowns, and neither fighter appeared seriously hurt at any stage. But the action was constant and kept the crowd in an uproar.

Chicago White Sox prepare to shove off Saturday for their spring training camp at Tampa, Fla.

Frank Lane, general manager, has given up hope of luring Andy Carey away from the New York Yankees, so seven players will get tryouts at the hot corner.

They are Cass Michaels, Minnie Mino, Johnny Lipon, Nellie Fox, Joe Kirrene, Fred Marsh and Jim Baumer.

Mino, the club's lone holdout, probably is the No. 1 third base candidate, although Manager Paul Richards hopes he can keep him in the outfield to round out a speedy out-garden trio that would include Groth, Jim Rivera or Wilford Marshall.

Kirrene is fresh from military service, Lipon is late of the Orioles and Michaels, a former Sox, returns from Philadelphia. Fox has been the club's regular second baseman.

Maurice Buchmiller's team out-scored Walter Houghton's quartet, 60 to 56, to win the current Masonic smear tournament by 3 points, 904 to 901. Going into the final round Houghton led by one point, 845 to 844.

Members of the winning team in addition to Buchmiller are Merl Hoveman, Ernest Heitman and Russel Beecher. With Houghton on the runner-up quartet are Stanley Srook, Bernard DeHooghe and Joe DePuydt.

Other cumulative scores in the annual tournament are John Strand 792, Elmer Peterson, 784, Cecil Jones 770, George Buchmiller 732, Louis Bizeau 730, Swan Widar 725, Martin Caldwell 704 and Chester Young 703.

High Wednesday evening was made by Jones with 72 and low by Chester Young with 51.

The annual windup banquet will be held next Wednesday evening at 8 at the Masonic hall at which time awards will be made. Members of the Caldwell and Young teams will form the kitchen committee for the dinner.

Evidence of the soundness of the Gladstone school system's educational program is seen in a graph prepared by Superintendent Wallace C. Cameron which covers distribution of grades of GHS graduates attending college over the last eight-year period.

Of 1,172 grades the average attained by the students was 2.95 of a possible 4.

In the compilation were 178 A's, 458 B's, 431 C's, 104 D's and 20 F's.

A total of thirty-six girls entered nurses training schools over the last 12-year period, and only four dropped the course before completion, it was disclosed.

Philosophy Of Schools Told By Sup't Cameron

Parents and citizens were invited to take greater interest in their schools, school philosophy and curriculum by Superintendent Wallace C. Cameron in separate talks before the Central and Buckeye Parent-Teacher Associations this week.

Supt. Cameron presented the basic school philosophy of the local system which he said had been developed by administration and faculty and mimeographed copies were submitted to those present for study. He requested suggestions.

The school philosophy should be agreed upon by the three most interested groups, the school faculty, school board and parents of students, he declared.

The basic school philosophy as presented for parental study follows:

"The total educational environment of Gladstone High School is determined by the student body and the community which it serves. The challenge is to provide appropriate general education for all and special training for individual needs, interests and abilities.

"The ultimate goals sought for are: to be good citizens in a free society; to be good neighbors in a healthy and democratic community; to be good home-members in a family, self-disciplined and self-reliant. These goals can be reached only where their worth is held important to happiness and personal dignity.

"The immediate demands which must be met are: to acquire preparation for further education and to learn skills of immediate use in a vocation or an appealing avocation.

"At Gladstone High School, education means more than teaching young adults what they do not know; it means encouraging them to engage in a variety of activities, to participate in a social process which often requires adjustment. This adjustment may at times be difficult, but in cooperation with teachers whose direction is characterized by kindness, observation, warning, precept, praise and example, it may be accomplished.

"Education is like a tree; it has branches to serve the many different needs of many youths; it has a trunk of common learnings to serve those purposes common to all of us as citizens; it depends for support upon roots which comprise proven moral principles of man's belief in God. Education is learning to live at one's best.

"Indeed, education is not a possession, but a process of continuous social growth, which begins in the cradle and continues throughout life. The school years intensify and accelerate the process of education."

Bombers Refuel At 300 M. P. H.

By ELTON C. FAY
HAMILTON, Bermuda (AP)—Forty-five American jet bombers racing toward Morocco replenished their fuel tanks in a spectacular refueling operation 20,000 feet above Bermuda waters.

The warplanes and the 22 accompanying tankers—the tactical arm of the 301st U. S. Bomber Wing— took off from Barksdale, La., Wednesday for a 60-day stay at Moroccan stations, 4,575 miles away.

The speedy B47s began to rendezvous with the tankers an hour before midnight, each taking upwards of 5,000 gallons of fuel. The tankers then landed at Bermuda to load still more fuel for planes still to come through.

The refueling was at a speed of 300 miles an hour with the nose and tail of the two planes only 20 feet apart. Contact was broken three times as either the bomber or the tanker swerved but was immediately restored until the last drop of fuel was pumped aboard.

The refueling completed, the bomber broke away, nosed down and dived under the tanker, darting away in the moonlight across the long Atlantic miles to North Africa.

The wing—the first bomber outfit to take regular station in the new U. S. built airfields in French Morocco— will carry out its first exercise from Moroccan bases Friday when it takes off for a 4,000-mile simulated strike at industrial areas of France and Britain.

State's Schools Need Improving

LANSING (AP)—Michigan's school facilities compare favorably with the national average but still need improvement, the State Department of Public Instruction said.

The department released figures giving Michigan's position in school housing in comparison with the rest of the nation.

It showed that: Michigan has 35 per cent of its buildings in satisfactory condition for continued use and 50 per cent in fair condition, compared nationally to 27 per cent satisfactory and 40 per cent fair.

The state houses 21 per cent of its children in fire resistant buildings and 18 per cent in semi-fire resistant compared to 12 per cent and 19 per cent nationally.

Michigan has 39.9 per cent of its buildings over 50 years old compared to the 22 per cent national average, however. Also, 13.4 per cent of the Michigan pupils attend schools more than 30 years old against a nine per cent national average.

The federal report said Michigan has the second highest total of students attending school part time.

More people get more news from newspapers than from all other sources combined.

Famous Men Define Meaning Of 'American'

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—What is America? What does it mean to be an American?

This is "America Week," and these questions are being discussed from pulpit and platform. Yet they are questions that each man must search his own heart through to find own answers.

And many answers have been given since Patrick Henry said in a speech in the Continental Congress on Sept. 5, 1774: "I am not a Virginian, but an American."

Youth Oldest Tradition

Just to refresh your own thinking, here are some observations, serious and not so serious, about the land of the free and the home of the brave:

"I am willing to love all mankind, except an American"—Samuel Johnson.

"... Knavery seems to be so much the striking feature of its (America's) inhabitants that it may not in the end be an evil that they will become aliens to this kingdom"—King George III, 1782.

"America means opportunity,

Freedom, power"—Emerson.

"Equal and exact justice to all men . . ."—Thomas Jefferson.

"The youth of America is their oldest tradition. It has been going on now for 300 years"—Oscar Wilde.

Books Vs. Chewing Gum

"Our reliance is in the love of liberty which God has planted in us. Our defense is in the spirit which prized liberty as the heritage of all men, in all lands everywhere"—Abraham Lincoln.

"Sometimes people call me an idealist. Well, that is the way I know I am an American. America is the only idealistic nation in the world"—Woodrow Wilson.

"This will never be a civilized country until we expend more money for books than we do for

Teachers Still Big School Need

By JIM TOMLINSON

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP)—The president of the American Assn. of School Administrators says the teacher shortage is still U. S. education's most painful problem.

"Estimates of the annual need for teachers to fill new positions and to replace those leaving the profession or retiring run to 125,000," Lawrence G. Derthick of chewing gum"—Elbert Hubbard.

"The desire for riches is their ruling passion"—Duc de la Rochefoucault-Liancourt, after a visit here in 1798.

"To rouse the Americans' eager interest, their distinguished consideration and their undying devotion, all that is necessary is to hold them up to the ridicule of the rest of the universe. Dickens won them to him forever my merciless projections of typical Americans as windbags, swindlers and assassins"—Bernard Shaw.

"America is one long exhortation"—Oscar Wilde.

"America is a tune. It must be sung together"—Gerald Stanley Lee.

Chattanooga, Tenn., told a news conference at the AASA convention Wednesday.

The six-day convention, attended by 16,000 school principals and superintendents, ended Thursday.

Derthick predicted U. S. school enrollments will swell by about nine million more children between now and 1959-60. For those new pupils alone, over 50,000 new teachers will be needed each year. An alarming new trend is a sudden slump in the supply of high school teachers, especially those in mathematics and the sciences.

Derthick said higher pay is one sure way to keep more teachers from quitting and persuade more young men and women to enter the profession.
